KAUAI PERSONALS

(The Garden Island).

J. B. Alexander, principal of Lihue school, has been ill this week and unable to attend to his teaching, in consequence.

Mrs. W. H. Rice and Mrs. Ralph Wilcox are expected to reach Honolulu, on their return from California, on December 27.

A moving picture show, managed by Edwin Fernandez, the "delight of the Honolulu fans," has been exhibiting in Lihue Hall on Thursday and Friday, and tonight will give the third and last performance.

Hon. W. H. Rice is going to Honolulu next Tuesday, on his way to Hawaii, where he will show the sights of the volcano to Miss Emily Rice and Miss Parsons, who went to Honolulu on the Kinau last Saturday.

Miss Elsie Wilcox, who has accompanied her parents on their travels to the Eastern states and Canada, will remain in Baltimore with her sister Miss Mabel Wilcox, for a visit, after Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox return.

William Bailey, who arrived on the steamer from Honolulu yesterday, will take the place of the late Mike O'Dowda as assistant sugar boiler at Maikawell. He is from a Hawaii plantation now, but was formerly a Kani man, having spent two years as sugar boiler at Waimanalo plantation.

Mrs. C. M. Cooke and Miss Alice Cooke are visiting Mother Rice at the Isenbergs. Mrs. Isenberg, in the meantime, is "trading off" with them, and went to Honolulu by the Hall on Tuesday, where she will visit her brother Paul and his family at Wai-alea, until after Thanksgiving.

Senator and Mrs. G. H. Fairchild have been heard from, recently, by their friends on Kauai, and they report that their daughter Lydia has been operated in Heidelberg and that she will have to remain in the hospital five months longer in order to give every opportunity for a perfect cure.

Mrs. A. D. Hills suffered a painful accident last Sunday night, while preparing to go out for a drive. While she was endeavoring to unhitch the horse, he reared, pulling up the rotten hitching post, and Mrs. Hills, in attempting to escape, had a bad fall on her face, and received several cuts which have confined her to the house temporarily.

has lived for the past twenty-five years. Previous to his arrival in Kilauea he was in Lihue for several years, where he had a position on the stock ranch of W. H. Rice. The new supervisor has had the large family of thirteen children, three of whom are dead. Of the ten who are living, one, a daughter, is at Kapapa, where she is a teacher in the Kapapa school. The remaining nine are all living at Kilauea plantation and the balance are living at home and attending school. Kauai County is to be congratulated on the appointment of Mr. Huddy as one of the Board, as he has had a splendid reputation for thorough and reliable work on Kilauea plantation for the past quarter of a century, is very highly regarded by the community of that district, and is sure to prove a capable and public-spirited incumbent of the supervisory chair.

WATERFRONT NEWS

The Matson liner Hilonian wire-leased on Sunday night at 8 p. m. that she was at that time 586 miles from Honolulu and would arrive at the quarantine station at 8 p. m. on Tuesday night. She reports light south-east winds and smooth seas. She is carrying eleven passengers, 2700 tons of general cargo, 24 mules, 8 heifers and Wells Fargo express, but has no mail.

Captain Weeden of the Lurline wire-leased to Castle & Cooke, the agents for his ship, that he was 1400 miles out early this morning, that everybody on board was well and fine weather prevailed.

The captain of the Enterprise wire-leased this morning that his vessel would sail from Hilo on Wednesday morning for the mainland. Those who wish to have a speedy delivery of their correspondence home would do well to mail it by the Mauna Kea which sails for the big island tomorrow, thus making connection with the Enterprise.

The ship Alexander Isenberg which arrived here last week after participating in the Portola festival in San Francisco, left early this morning for Yokohama. During her stay in Honolulu the officers and men of the ship were royally entertained not only by their resident countrymen but also by the representatives of the various governments stationed in the city. The usual salutes were given and responded to as the man-o-war steamed out of the harbor.
